UPMC Magee-Womens in Williamsport Welcomes Newest Little Teammates

Williamsport, Pa., August 25, 2026 – To celebrate the babies born during the Little League Baseball® World Series, UPMC Magee-Womens in Williamsport helped the newest arrivals and their families join the baseball fun. Newborns received crocheted baseball caps, lovingly created and donated by UPMC employees, along with special UPMC Magee-Womens onesies.

Adding to the excitement, families got a special visit from UPMC mascots Will M. Sport and Gabi, who greeted families and posed for photos with the newest teammates.

“We love getting to be a part of this community tradition each year,” said Katelyn Fowler, unit director, UPMC Magee-Womens Birthplace in Williamsport. “Welcoming new babies and supporting their families is always special, but during the Little League World Series, there’s an extra layer to the fun to be able to tie in the hometown pride that makes Williamsport unique.”
